GTO Association of Maine June 2000

OPENING REMARKS

This isn't so much of a newsletter as it is a "flyer" for the Shore Thang

SHORE THANG Sat June 24th

Can you say Lobstah? Shore Thang! Here's the deal. If you're coming from the south I'll be at the Wiscasset Irving on Rt. 1 at 10:00. We'll head to Rockland and will meet at Kevin Wilson's "The Scale House" 781 Main St. – the place with all the hubcaps if you know Rockland. Link up with us there at 11:00 if that works for you. Kevin has volunteered to let us all weigh our cars on his scale. From there we head to the Monroe's secret location for a good ol' GTOAM feed. The club will supply Corn on the Cob, soda, butter, and salt! If you want lobsters let Joanna know the count. You can settle up with her at the event. If you'd rather grill something just bring it along. Joanna requests that everyone bring a casserole, salad, or some other sort of side dish that we can all share.

If you folks in the North want to set up a convoy to Rockland, let me know and I'll e-mail the info out.

Should you want to make a weekend out of it, here's an idea. Owl's Head is having it's 70's show on Sunday. If you're interested in accommodations in Rockland to do the entire weekend, contact Joanna or me and we'll give you the recommendations.
